The University of Delaware has a great tradition of excellence, from our roots extending back to a small private academy started in 1743, to the research-intensive, technologically advanced institution of today. A state-assisted, privately governed institution, UD offers more than 150 bachelor's programs. Our student body encompasses more than 17,000 undergraduates from across the country and around the globe.

2. Click the arrow to the left of the University of Delaware to display the materials required to complete and submit your application.

The screenshot shows a dashboard with a navigation bar containing 'Dashboard', 'My Colleges', 'Common App', 'College Search', and 'Financial Aid Resources'. A 'My Colleges Requirements' button is visible. Below is a table with columns: 'My Colleges (1)', 'Writing Requirements', 'Deadline', 'Application', 'Writing Supplement', and 'Remove'. The 'University of Delaware' row is selected, indicated by a right-pointing arrow. The 'Writing Requirements' column contains three colored arrows (red, yellow, blue). The 'Deadline' is '01/15/2018'. The 'Application' and 'Writing Supplement' columns each have a yellow dot. The 'Remove' column has a trash can icon.

The screenshot shows the 'Writing Requirements' page for the University of Delaware. The navigation bar is the same as in the previous screenshot. The 'My Colleges' table is shown with a left-pointing arrow next to 'University of Delaware'. Below the table, there are two tabs: 'Status' and 'Writing Requirements'. The 'Writing Requirements' tab is active and displays a list of requirements for 'Fall 2018, Regular Decision'. The requirements are grouped into 'Application' and 'Writing Supplement'. Under 'Application', 'Common Application', 'Questions', and 'Recommenders and FERPA' are all listed as 'Incomplete'. Under 'Writing Supplement', 'Writing Questions' is listed as 'Ready'.
